NOTICE REGARDING DATA PROTECTION LEGISLATION

During the coming week, every parish volunteer will be receiving a letter and a consent form. Gathering consent allows the parish to process person information as we did before, but in a way that is now compliant with data protection Legislation.

All parish volunteers are requested to return the signed consent forms before next weekend.

Volunteers are asked to collect their letters from behind the high Altar. You will find your envelope under the group to which you belong. If you are in more than one group you will only receive one letter.
